READ A BIOGRAPHY ABOUT A FAMOUS PERSON YOU DISLIKE

Expand your Horizons by reading about someone you may not particularly like. Although you still may not like them after reading about them, you will have more of insight to what makes them tick.

You can find biographies several different ways:

1. Go to the library website – <http://www.nappaneelibrary.org>
 - a. In the search box, type in name of the person you are interested in or for a list to choose from type in biography, autobiography, or memoir
 - b. Click the search button
 - c. Choose the format that you want from the facets on the left hand side of the page
2. Visit the library and peruse the shelves. Biographies can be found in several different locations at the library. Staff is available to help you find what you are looking for.
3. Go to the Overdrive website - <https://nidl.overdrive.com> to search for ebooks and eAudiobooks.
 - a. In the search box, type in name of the person you are interested in or for a list to choose from type in biography, autobiography, or memoir
 - b. Click the search button
 - c. You can use the sorted by pull-down or the filters pull-down to narrow down your search.
 - d. Or, click on the word Subjects along the top row
 - e. Scroll down to Biography & Autobiography to pull up your choices.
4. Use the Libby app to search for ebooks and eAudiobooks.
