

Last Visit

My heart was telling me I needed to go visit my great Aunt today.

So plans I made to travel with my family out West for a little getaway.

We all knew this would be our last time ever spent together and so,

After a long talk I asked her if there was anything she wanted me to know.

At 101 years young, her still sharp mind didn't hesitate as she turned to me to say,

"If the Lord calls me home, or if on this earth He lets me stay, you see my dear, I win either way."
