Summer Reading Challenge

JUNE 1 - JULY 15

DIVE INTO YOUR NEXT GREAT ADVENTURE!

The 2022 Summer Reading Challenge kicks off June 1.

Read: Read or listen! What you read is up to you!

Record: Begin recording minutes on June 1. Record online or with a paper reading log.

Attend: Join us for special ocean themed programs during the challenge.

Summer Reading Kick Off | June 1 | 10 am - 6 pm

Kick off Summer Reading with a scavenger hunt and an ice cream bar! Sign up at the kick off and be entered to win a family membership to the Potawatomi Zoo!

Tiny Art Show | June 13 - June 27

Paint a tiny masterpiece and drop it back off at the library to be part of our Tiny Art Show.

Library Camp Out | June 17 | 6 - 7 pm

Come to the library after hours and build a blanket fort, snack, and read.

The Whalemobile | June 23 | 2 pm, 2:30 pm, 3 pm, 3:30 pm

Learn about whales from inside a life sized inflatable whale, named Nile!

Zoo-To-You | July 14 | 11 am - 12 pm

The Potawatomi Zoo is bringing the zoo to NPL!

Visit nappaneelibrary.org for more programs and events.

Win: Read 1,000 minutes to complete the challenge and earn rewards along the way.
Read, borrow items, and attend programs to get tickets towards grand prizes.

The Summer Reading Challenge is open to Nappanee Resident, Fee, PLAC, Student, and Reciprocal Cardholders.

Student cards are available to children ages 18 and under living within the Wa-Nee school district.
