Request for Reconsideration Policy

The Nappanee Public Library recognizes that there may be complaints about specific titles and types of material selected for the Library’s collection. This policy ensures a systematic approach for handling requests for removal of library materials while upholding the fundamental principles of intellectual freedom.

Request for Reconsideration Policy

1. Individuals or organizations who wish to request reconsideration of library materials must complete a Request for Reconsideration form for each individual item, including date and signature(s).

2. Individuals requesting reconsideration of materials must be residents of the Nappanee Library district. Organizations wishing to request reconsideration of materials must be physically located within the Nappanee Public Library district.

3. The Director will appoint a committee to review each Request for Reconsideration. The committee will consult/consider the following in preparing its report and recommendation:
   a. The American Library Bill of Rights, published by the American Library Association
   b. The Freedom to Read Statement, jointly published by the American Library Association and the American Publishers Association
   c. The Nappanee Public Library Collection Development Policy
   d. Professional reviews
   e. The literary, historical, cultural, and societal context in which the work was created

4. The Reconsideration committee will not review more than five (5) items at one time.

5. An item will be reconsidered only once in a five (5) year period.

6. Materials being reconsidered will remain in the collection for access while reconsideration takes place.

7. The Director will notify the President of the Nappanee Public Library Board of Trustees when:
   a. a request is submitted, and
   b. a decision is reached by the Director.

8. The initiator of a request may appeal the decision of the Director to the Board of Trustees.

9. The decision of the Board will be final and binding.
