

Nappanee

- where the arts thrive
  - where creative arts are celebrated on street corners, in cozy boutiques and on nature trails
  - where culinary arts are experienced from fine dining to gourmet chocolate and coffee to homemade pie and bread
  - where performing arts are encouraged on the stage and on the screen, in the high school auditorium and on the marching field
- where recreation challenges
  - where kids play, parents coach and grandparents cheer
  - where athletes strive for their best, swing for the fences and for their dreams
  - where parks bustle with sports and exercise while golfers compete nearby
- where community flourishes
  - where the past is honored and preserved in architecture and museums
  - where the present is enjoyed around food trucks on Friday nights, at fun-filled festivals and parades
  - where the future is anticipated through new buildings, neighborhood improvements and thriving industry
  - where hometown is a way of life and source of pride
